Dear people being interested in following Michael Shea's classes in Germany,

Some time ago we posted the new flyer for Michael Shea's courses we want to offer this year (2021) in Germany - Link. Already we have received quite many registrations but Almut has not started to work on them and send you acceptance letters due to the allover situation worldwide. In Germany we have another prolongation of lockdown until January 31st, 2021. So, we have decided to wait until then to make any further decisions.

We need to let all parties involved (students, assistants, seminar houses) know if we stick to the plans we have with the courses planed for April/May. And Michael needs to book a ticket in advance (most probably by 2 months before the start of the first class). Additionally, there is the topic of quarantine for Michael and students/assistants who come from out of Germany. This all makes decision making really challenging.

Carlos Rodeiro (www.biostillness.com) organized a webinar with Michael in November with 4 parts. This went really well, and we are very clear that this cannot replace coming together live and working hands-on. But it was really good to see so many well-known people from earlier classes and re-bond and take part in Michael's newest researches he taught us.

Now Carlos has planned another webinar with Michael on the 5 Elements in Tibetan Medicine for February 3 and 24 and he sent me the Link.

Please check and register if you feel like going on with webinars until we can meet live again. Almut will be the translator again.

Stay well,
Almut Althaus and Michael Shea
