Dear Cranio folks,

Michael is deeply working on his new book, which also includes preparing the new course he will teach in Germany in fall 2024.

The new book is called “The Biodynamic Heart”. The new course will be about ‘the heart inside the heart’ and our perception of the elements as guided and directed by the void essence and spirit in ‘the heart inside the heart’.

We hope to be able to send out the new flyer information this fall so you can start to register.

These are the dates and locations:

September 12th-15th, 2024 Badenweiler (near Freiburg)

September 19th-22nd, 2024 Badenweiler (near Freiburg)

November 7th-10th, 2024 Haus Ebersberg (near Kassel)

Please also find the newest information on the courses on our website.

We have added a site on our website for you to find the list of interviews Michael gave in several podcasts – here.

For those of you who want to participate in the upcoming classes but need or want more preps we have put together packages on the last classes (fall 2022 and spring 2023). Please contact me, Almut, for further information.

Love, Almut and Michael
